6	 A. I evaluate potential deals coming
7	in. I speak to investors. I speak to my
8	colleagues in terms of evaluating the deals. I
9	do due diligence. I yeah, I manage
10	documentation.
11	 Q. Are you involved with any of the
12	companies that Go Global currently owns?

- 13 A. I'm not directly involved, no. I 14 have been involved in the past. And there's a 15 certain period of involvement, and then I 16 disengage. 17
- Q. I see. So, the majority of your 18 involvement is generally on the front-end 19 before a transaction occurs; is that a fair 20 statement?
- 21 A. During the transaction, and then 22 also during transition, and I won't be in the 23 company long-term, I'm not employed by the 24 company, but I do assist the company for a 25 period of time -- the companies.

- 2 Q. In March of 2023, do you know if 3 there was already a Lazard data room?
 - A. No, I did not know. I did not --
- 5 let me rephrase. Lazard provided information,
- 6 but there was no -- we had a data room, but it
- 7 was not the same data room as -- it was a data
- 8 room that was created early on before their
- 9 foreclosure. So, there was a data room, but,
- 10 you know -- there's many different data rooms,
- 11 so I just want to make sure I'm clear, there
- 12 was a data room for us.
- 13 Q. When you say "for us," you mean for 14 Go Global only?
- 15 A. That we could access, there's data 16 that we could access.
- 17 Q. But there were other -- well, your 18 understanding at that time is there were other 19 entities and people who are able to access that 20 data room other than Go Global?
- 21 A. I do not know.
- 22 Q. Related to BuyBuy Baby, do you know 23 how many different data rooms you accessed through Lazard? 24
 - A. Probably two, the one that we got

- A. Yes. 8
 - Q. Do you know when you --
- 10 approximately when you first started working on
- the potential BuyBuy Baby deal? 11
- 12 A. Probably March of 2023.
- 13 Q. And how did that come to be in
- 14 March of '23?
- A. We were connected with Lazard, who 15 16 was the advisor of Bed Bath & Beyond, we were 17 interested in BuyBuy Baby.
- Q. And do you know who first connected 18 19 you with Lazard?
- 20 A. I don't recall. Yeah, I don't 21 recall. I'm trying to remember. It could have
- 22 been us reaching out to Lazard because some of
- 23 our associates did have relationships with
- 24 them, so it could have been our connected

- 7 A. When you say "changed," do you mean 8 additional information was provided --
 - Q. Yeah, things were added.
- 10 A. I'm sorry?
- 11 Q. Were things added over time to the
- 12 data room?
 - A. Sure. Yes, yes.
- Q. Would you make specific requests to 14
- 15 Lazard for additional information?
 - A. Yes.
- 17 Q. And then would the responses to
- 18 those requests end up in the Lazard data room?
 - A. Yes.
- 20 Q. Do you remember who your main
- 21 contacts at Lazard was?
- 22 A. I believe there was a Mr. Tempke --23 (Talking over each other.)
- 24 I believe so. There was also Brendan

We 19 talked about our roles, but never as a GP. 20 Because a GP, under our definition, is a 21 private equity term, and not something that we 22 would --23 Q. What is your definition of a GP?

24 A. It's basically a private equity 25 type of investor that manages a transaction, A. I believe Deb Gargiulo was there.

7 Q. And was there anyone from Ankura 8 who was there in-person?

A. I believe Kathleen was there. I'm not certain, but I believe she was there. 10

Q. Besides those people, do you 11 12 remember who else may have been there in-person? 13

14 A. Dream On Me representatives and 15 leadership. 16

Q. Do you remember their names?

17 Mark, I think Milan was there, 18 Abish, I believe Mark's son was there, I don't

19 remember his name. So, there were people

20 there, yeah, that I could see. I mean, I don't

9 A. From the e-mail here, I can see 10 that, yeah.

11 Q. Well, I guess does this e-mail12 refresh your recollection of Go Global's13 position at the meeting?

A. It does reflect it because we want them to come back to us and get their thoughts, rather than giving up more. We gave up a lot of what we've done. They have our Excel sheets, they have our models, they have our plans and information, so we don't want to give out more unless they give us some indication of where they stand as a potential partner.

The only thing they could offer, I believe, was capital.

Q. So, following the June 15th meeting, do you remember what happened next chronologically with regard to this transaction?

14 A. In terms of the transaction itself, 15 Lazard and I believe the law firm that was 16 conducting the process had delays, they sent 17 multiple different timelines. Yeah. And we 18 did not -- I don't think we -- we didn't have another formal meeting with Dream On Me or 19 20 anything like that. We were working on the deal, we remained very interested in BuyBuy 21 22 Baby the whole time. So, yeah, we were still 23 following the deal, for sure. 24 Q. Do you know when Go Global

A. These would be -- to the best of my 5 recollection, these would be the ones that we 6 think could work well. And after acquisition, 7 we keep these open. And that is something that 8 we worked on, that we did research on it. This 9 is not a random list. This is something that 10 we would have shared in our model.

So, that's a work to build together, 12 that's not an exhibit from Lazard. I just want 13 to make sure you understand that --

Q. Seeing the wire confirmation, does that refresh your recollection at all of 10 whether Go Global ever submitted any kind of 11 bid deposit?

12 A. I don't remember, to be honest. I 13 don't remember. I mean, because the wire says

14 to Cro, and I'm not sure -- like I said, I don't do the wires, so I'm not sure why it says

I mean, yeah, I mentioned to you earlier, there is different ways to come to an offer, kind of a package. think that's what they're saying. So, she wants us to be seen in a good light; right, so 6 And I think maybe she -- I believe this is what 7 she's trying to say, or she could be talking 7 that we could ultimately compete and win. 8 about, I guess, coming up with some type of, Q. Are the terms "qualifying bid" and 9 9 you know, potential investor group or something "binding bid" the same in your mind? A. "Qualifying bid" and "binding bid," 10 to that effect. 10 11 But it would be -- I would think that 11 I -- no, I think in this sense, "qualifying 12 there's, you know -- we're looking at different bid" means a bid that they would determine is a 13 structures and she's probably looking at -viable bid. "Binding," to me, would mean in 14 she's probably talking about pivoting general, I don't know about here, would be 15 structures or looking at different structures. something you can't get out of; right? A little further down next to my that's what I would understand is "binding." 16 16 17 cursor, she says, "We would be remiss if we 17 But at this point, that process hasn't 18 didn't advise you that based on recent 18 happened. 19 conversations with Lazard, the debtors and 19 Q. So, am I correct that Go Global 20 their advisors are frustrated and disappointed 20 never submitted a binding bid for BuyBuy Baby? 21 A. I do not believe we had a binding 21 with where we are three days before the 22 auction." 22 bid in that sense. No, I don't think so, in 23 23 that definition. Do you know why they would have been 24 24 frustrated and disappointed? Q. Did Go Global ever submit a 25 A. Yeah, I think this whole process 25 qualifying bid for BuyBuy Baby? Page 66 Page 68 Chau Chau 1 1 was very frustrating for everybody. If you 3 look at the deal history, they had multiple delays, they didn't, you know -- they were providing information that things were going 6 along. So, things are changing. And I think 7 what they were trying to do is basically put a 8 final kind of conclusion to the whole sale 9 process of BuyBuy Baby, and they probably

10 wanted people to put their -- put certain 11 offers together maybe in a format that they 12 wanted to within a few days, and I think

13 everybody was frustrated at the time. So, I

14 think they were frustrated not just -- I don't 15 think it's directly only at us.

16

18

Q. Above that, it says, "We want to make sure Go Global is best positioned to qualify and ultimately win the bid."

Do you know what it took to qualify?

19 20 A. I think what she was referring to 21 maybe it's just to give them assurance that we 22 had investors, that we would have a good plan 23 to buy, and then keep running the company and so forth. So, I think it's just -- if I had to 25 think about where Lazard's position would be,

2 A. I think our bids were qualified to a degree. I think they're, I want to say, like 3 reasonable or quality, of quality. We had good investors, we had investors who expressed interest and they were quality investors. So, I think that qualification, in my point of view, was met. So, I would think we had quality bids, I mean -- or a quality group together. Whether that was --10 11 Q. Did they qualify?

12 A. Well, they would have to -- I think 13 you're saying did they qualify us, is that what you're saying? 15

Q. Yes.

A. I don't recall because -- okay. So, they could say -- because they were working with us and kept on moving along with us, so obviously they qualified us throughout the 20 process. Otherwise, they would say step out of 21 the process; right?

22 So, I think if you're asking that, 23 yeah, I think we provided qualified bids along 24 the way -- qualified indications along the way.

25 But no, we didn't have a binding -- we

October 16, 2024 69–72

But I do -- if you're asking me do I 10 think we were qualified? Yes, I do think we 11 were qualified to make a bid, and they 12 qualified over us -- us over time. But, you 13 know, I think if you're talking about the 14 actual bidding process, we didn't offer a 15 binding bid.

Q. Did the going concern auction ever 17 occur?

A. The going concern auction? So, I 19 believe that the IP auction -- well, the IP 20 auction happened. I think after that, there 21 would have been an opportunity to -- there was 22 an open -- I think there was an open 23 opportunity to go after the IP and the assets, 24 I would say, as a whole. But at that time,

25 too, I think the IP -- yeah, I think there was business changed, as well. And it's really about what we believe is a fair value and what the investors believe, as well. They were committed to us, they believed in what we were doing, they saw the work, as well. But 7 ultimately, it's a matter of whether your investors see things eye to eye or see the same type of value in order to allow you to execute 10 a bid.

11 Q. So, ultimately, there was no bid because there was not -- there were not sufficient capital contributed --13 14

A. Right.

15 Q. And do you believe Go Global would have bid if it had raised sufficient capital?

> A. Say that again, sir.

Q. Do you believe Go Global would have 18 19 bid if it had raised sufficient capital?

20 A. I believe we would have bid at a certain price. And I think, you know, to say 21 22 that we didn't have sufficient capital to the 23 point that where the value was. We had 24 commitments and we had investors interested,

25 but it's all about the valuation; right, how

It's been a while, but I mean, if 4 whether the IP auction ended up, I think that I'm putting what you're showing me together, 5 value was outside of what we had indicated that sounds right. So, at -- but at this time, 6 before we think that -- because remember, the 6 this was on the 17th, so things have changed --7 deal starts to evolve over time; right? or 16th, so by the 17th, 18th or so, the perception and the ratios may have changed in 8 So, what you saw, maybe what Christian 9 sent on the 17th, the next day, the day after, terms of intellectual property versus what's in 10 things change, and we got, you know -the inventory, what we can rely on, and then constantly getting more information and the 11 also how much we would want to pay for the 11 12 deal, you know -- certain things start to 12 intellectual property at this point. 13 diminish, values start kicking wrong values and And so -- yeah. So, that would 13 14 valuation ideas. 14 determine our thoughts behind it. So, for instance, the IP would have 15 Q. Do you know how much the winning 15 16 been probably lower than that particular 16 bid was for the intellectual property? 17 A. I believe it was 15.5. 17 estimate. So, are people, you know -- would 18 you be willing to pay that much; right? And I Q. Do you know when that auction 18 19 think that's where -- it's not so much that we 19 occurred? 20 20 didn't have the capital, per se, but the A. I don't remember exactly. It 21 capital at certain valuations just, you know, 21 must -- I would think it was after this date, 22 didn't make sense to the investor or didn't 22 if that's correct. I'm not sure, actually. 23 make sense acquiring at a certain value -- at a 23 Again, because the timelines had moved a lot, 24 certain price, I should say. Not value; at a 24 it's been a year, so I know that the 25 certain price. 25 intellectual property bid happened, and then

And that price was a little bit beyond 3 what we disclosed, we would kind of think of in 4 terms of ratios and how much we would pay for the business, both IP, as well as the ongoing. Does that make sense?

Q. Yeah. What was submitted on the 16th, did you have the capital for that?

A. Sorry, what was submitted on the 16th?

Q. The bid we were looking at, do you 11 12 know if you had the capital to support that bid? 13 there was time after that to submit another bid to kind of take the whole -- take that as well 4 as an ongoing concern.

5 My view is that -- what was seen in that e-mail, that proposal, that indication was 7 higher than what I think was reasonable in the sense of by the time it happened, at the time that the bid was won and by the time one would look to do a counter, that would have been a 10 high number because the value would have 11 changed or diminished by then. Yeah. 12

Q. You're saying that the value of the 14 IP would have diminished by then?

15 A. May have, yeah, may have. So, I'm 16 not saying that that's -- the number that 17 Christian had there in his proposal was the 18 right one. It was the one that he felt was 19 aggressive at the time. But at the same time, 20 you know, between then and the close of the 21 whole transaction; right, I mean, the whole process, there was probably about another week 23 or so --

A. Not necessarily. It could be for a number of reasons. I didn't want to get into details there because, again, there would have 9 been some privacy issues or -- I just didn't 10 want to get into that -- the weeds of that, so 11 I just wanted to let them know that we 12 ultimately didn't do this deal and what was our 13 process in looking at it. It's really a 14 document to show investors and potential 15 partners of the work that we do, kind of the 16 thought process. And we just used this as a 17 case study.

Q. So, I'm looking at the bold 19 section, where it says, "The opaque status of 20 inventory levels leads to human resources and vendor contracts led us to increase the risk in 22 profile based on the cost to restock inventory, 23 uncertainty of retaining key customer data and assurance of leases. Without a higher level of 25 certainty we felt the seller needs to provide writing, there was certainly uncertainty around it. So, certainly it would not have been worth 10 as much by this time. Because we're talking 11 12 July now, and the way that things were moving 13 so quickly, that even from the 17th or 16th, 14 whatever Christian wrote that, to the 23rd, 15 things have already started changing. And 16 definitely you'll, you know -- you probably 17 seen things where we're asking Lazard for more 18 information and to give us updates, because it 19 was that fluid.

And as I mentioned here in what I'm

20 So, if somebody knew our strategy in 21 terms of how much we think we value from a 22 ratio point of view, is higher than what 23 our investors may have wanted to put in and 24 what we could have a binding offer for. So, 25 that, you know -- passing both from a valuation
